

Center for Public Health & Advanced Medical Studies

Are you interested in:

- Pursuing an advanced degree in the medical field after high school
- Furthering knowledge in science and earning the science electives needed to graduate
- Meeting and working with new students from other schools
- Gaining potential college credits through our coursework and exams
- Hands-on learning with a variety of lab activities

BeRe.al/gunjapatel

What is it?

Located on the campus of White Knoll High School, the Center for Public Health and Advanced Medical Studies is open to all students during their sophomore year in Lexington School District One. Students will spend half of their day with a total of 2 blocks.

Class that must be taken before enrolling into the center:

- Biology 1
- Algebra 1

Algebra 2 - must be complete or enrolled during sophomore year

Contact info:

Nicholas Hanle
nhanle@lexington1.net

Amber Morris:
amorris@lexington1.net