About Me

After graduating from Lander University, I married my high school sweetheart Chad. We have three amazing boys: Bryson, Tyler, and Dylan. We also have two dogs: Cody and Millie. Our boys are the center of our world!! They keep us busy through active involvements with church, baseball, basketball, and football. We love spending our extra time watching movies, camping, playing ball, swimming, and taking vacations. We are a Gamecock family and love attending USC games.

My passion is teaching. I love building positive relationships with students and families. I love watching students grow in their learning and help them develop a love for reading.
