FINE ARTS FOCUS

RBHS Choirs will be left Thursday to perform in the National Memorial Day Choral Festival in the Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts in Washington, D.C.

They will also perform in the opening ceremony for the National Memorial Day Parade, which will be televised! The group auditioned for a spot in this event and it is quite an honor to perform in memory of our fallen soldiers.

Photography 1 students had a fun one day photo experience inspired by the photographer JR! They took close up expressive portraits, edited them in black and white, and voted on their favorites. They are hanging all around school in non traditional spaces. All winning photos can be viewed HERE

Need a break between exam stressors? Take a stroll down to the Main Street Gallery and check out the incredible works of Yesnach's 3D Design class.

There you will see:
incredible ceramic story tiles,
creative coil pots and slab coffee mugs, face jugs inspired by South Carolina's past, and Oaxacan inspired abstract animals.
