DATE:                 November 4, 2022

TO:                    Lexington County School District One Board of Trustees

FROM:              Superintendent Gerrita Postlewait, ED.D.

REGARDING:      November 9, 2022 Board of Trustees Workshop and Quorum

On Wednesday, November 9, 2022, the Lexington County School District One Board of Trustees will meet for a board workshop in the Multipurpose Room of Lexington Technology Center, located 2421 Augusta Highway, in Lexington, South Carolina.

The meeting opens at 11 A.M. The board will engage in roundtable-style conversations with school level administrators about data-informed decision-making at the school level.

The meeting is open to the public, but will not be livestreamed. After the meeting, the district will follow its previously established process of posting a video of the meeting to its YouTube channel and its website.

Earlier that day from 8:15–10:30 A.M., the board will gather at the same location for a presentation from the Education Oversight Committee on the state's accountability system. Although a quorum of board members may attend this event, they will not hold any official board meeting nor conduct any district business.
